Qualifications

See the website for the full list of activity areas or skill sets available.

Details

Before applying for RPL with us, it is recommended that you read the flyer for each activity area as it gives an overview of the knowledge and skills required for that area.

If you consider yourself a suitable candidate for RPL you will need to apply for a suitability assessment. This will cost $100.

After applying for RPL and paying the non-refundable fee of $100, a MOEC assessor will contact you to arrange a meeting (personal or teleconference) and discuss the RPL process, the units that you require, the knowledge and skill required in each unit and your ability to provide evidence that covers the required knowledge and skill. The assessor will provide guidance and feedback relating to the quality of the evidence that you can provide, and advise you via a plan as to how you should proceed to the qualification.

The fee paid is non-refundable but will be deducted from the cost of completing the RPL process with us should you wish to proceed. You are under no obligation to continue any further through RPL with us. If further training is identified as recommended in the developed plan, you are under no obligation to do this training with us, but if you enrol in any training and further assessment with us the full course fee is payable.
